

Pearly Whites™

Almost half of the world's population is affected by tooth decay, making it the most prevalent of all health conditions ¹

Consumers the world over are willing to invest in preventative oral care – a much better option than curing an existing problem.

Why not make prevention enjoyable?

Our new oral care gummy, Pearly Whites™, is a first on the market: it features Vitamin D and Calcium, contributing to the maintenance of normal teeth, as well as herbal ingredients for a fresh mouthfeel.
